

Stick-figure stickers of your family might seem cute and a way to personalize your vehicle, but some authorities are warning that these popular decals could also give away personal information to potential criminals. This can be especially concerning when used along with other stickers that indicate information like your occupation, hobbies, and family names.

- What stickers are on your family vehicle?

The same type of information gathering can happen online.

- What types of information do your family members have posted online?

Make a Cybersecurity Superhero Costume

Visit The Federal Trade Commission

OnGuardOnline | Consumer Information \(ftc.gov\)

Better Business Bureau Scam Tracker

BBB Scam Tracker<sup>SM</sup> | Find and Report a Scam

Now that you are aware of privacy and identity theft, discuss the following with your family.

What steps should your family take to keep information private?

1.

2.

3.

What steps should your family take to protect the family members from identity theft?

1.

2.

3.